

The Canal Town Museum and Canastota Library will be pleased to present:

A Soldier's Journey

Through the Heart of the Park

Sgt. John Salvatore Taibi

A PowerPoint presentation by John Ralph Taibi

October 25, 2018 7PM

Canalside Talk

On Thursday, October 25, at 7 p.m., the Canal Town Museum and the Canastota Public Library will present a talk by John Taibi entitled “ A Soldier’s Journey Through the Heart of the Park.” John Taibi is known for his knowledge of railroads.

The presentation tells the story of John Taibi’s father, Sgt. John Salvatore Taibi, a World War II veteran, and his trip from Utica to Lake Placid on the New York Central Railroad, now the Adirondack Scenic Railroad. Sgt. Taibi and other veterans were sent to Lake Placid to reacclimate to normal life after living as prisoners of war overseas. The event is free and open to the public at the Library.